FILING NO._____/26

CASE NO._____/26

In the matter of

Petition for grant of Licence to "Telangana Rythu Power Distribution Company Limited(TGRPDCL)" in accordance with the provisions under section 14 of the Electricity Act, 2003 and as per Distribution Licence Regulation no.4 of 2016.

In the matter of

TELANGANA RYTHU POWER DISTRIBUTION COMPANY LIMITED

..... Applicant

This application is filed for grant of Licence to "Telangana Rythu Power Distribution Company Limited (TGRPDCL)" in accordance with the provisions under section 14 of the Electricity Act, 2003 and as per Distribution Licence Regulation no.4 of 2016.

The applicants respectfully submit as under:

1. As per section 14 of Electricity Act, 2003 (Grant of Licence):

The Appropriate Commission may, on an application made to it under section 15, grant a licence to any person - (a) to transmit electricity as a transmission licensee; or (b) to distribute electricity as a distribution licensee; or (c) to undertake trading in electricity as an electricity trader, in any area as may be specified in it.

Provided also that the Appropriate Commission may grant a licence to two or more persons for distribution of electricity through their own distribution system within the same area, subject to the conditions that the applicant for grant of licence within the same area shall, without prejudice to the other conditions or requirements under this Act, comply with the additional requirements as may be prescribed by the Central Government, and no such applicant, who complies with all the requirements for grant of licence, shall be refused grant of licence on the ground that there already exists a licensee in the same area for the same purpose:

Provided also that in a case where a distribution licensee proposes to undertake distribution of electricity for a specified area within his area of supply through another person, that person shall not be required to obtain any separate licence from the concerned State Commission and such distribution licensee shall be responsible for distribution of electricity in his area of supply.

21. Organizational & Managerial capability of the Applicant:

It is proposed that the employees from Southern Power Distribution Company of Telangana (TGSPDCL) & Northern Power Distribution Company of Telangana (TGNPDCL) are deployed for Telangana Rythu Power Distribution Company Limited (TGRPDCL). With the above, TGRPDCL attains adequate organizational & managerial capabilities required for DISCOM operation.

22. Approach & Methodology:

(The Applicant is required to describe approach & methodology for setting up its distribution system and conduct of the business of distribution of electricity as proposed by it. This should contain a statement of the Applicant's plan on conduct of the business of distribution of electricity during the first year after the grant of licence and future plans for the said business during the next five years.)

Rythu DISCOM proposes to establish and operate an efficient, reliable, and financially sustainable electricity distribution system with a focus on serving agricultural consumers, Lift Irrigation, Composite Protected Water Supply Scheme (CPWS)/ Mission Bhagiratha, Hyderabad Metropolitan Water Supply and Sewerage Board (HMWSSB), Municipal water connections with separate DTRs (LT VI-B) in the entire state of Telangana. The approach is centered on modern infrastructure, loss reduction, digital integration, and consumer-centric service delivery.

Approach for Setting up Distribution System

- Procuring power by taking over/sharing of PPAs from incumbent DISCOMs and purchase from open market on need basis.
- Distributing power by using the existing Transmission network of TGTRANSCO & existing distribution network of incumbent DISCOMs and by developing infrastructure on need basis.
- Conducting detailed load forecasting considering agricultural demand, LIS demand, seasonal variations, and rural growth.

- Developing a phased network expansion plan including feeders, and distribution transformers.
- Adopt GIS-based mapping for asset planning and management.
- Ensure compliance with ERC regulations, Central Electricity Authority (CEA) standards, and safety norms.
- Install high-efficiency distribution transformers with appropriate capacity.
- Provide dedicated feeders for agriculture where feasible.
- Deploy smart metering infrastructure for all distribution transformers and at interface points with existing Discoms in a phased manner.
- Enable digital platforms for consumer services.
- Strengthening of weak networks and replacement of obsolete conductors.
- Regular energy audits at feeder and transformer levels.
- Promote distributed renewable energy such as solar pumps and rooftop solar.
- Facilitate net metering and grid connectivity for decentralized generation.
- Align with state and national renewable energy policies.

Conduct of Business – First Year Plan

- Take over or commission initial distribution assets (i.e. Agriculture DTRs and downstream LT network, dedicated feeder and LT circuits of HMWSSB, CPWS and LIS) and services of agricultural consumers, Lift Irrigation, Composite Protected Water Supply Scheme (CPWS)/ Mission Bhagiratha, (HMWSSB), Municipal water connections with separate DTRs (LT VI-B) in the license proposed area of entire Telangana state.
- Ensure uninterrupted power supply with defined reliability standards.
- Conduct awareness programs for energy conservation and safe usage.
- Establish robust accounting and auditing systems.
- Ensure timely tariff filing and compliance with ERC regulations.
- Optimize power procurement costs through competitive sourcing.

- Adhere to all licence conditions, standards of performance, and reporting requirements.
- Submit periodic reports to ERC.

Five-Year Business Plan (Future Roadmap)

- Expand distribution network to achieve universal access within the licensed area.
- Upgrade infrastructure to meet growing demand.
- Reduce technical losses to below regulatory benchmarks.
- Full-scale deployment of smart meters for agriculture DTRs in a phased manner.
- Advanced SCADA and Distribution Management Systems across the network.
- Achieve high reliability indices (SAIDI/SAIFI improvements).
- 24/7 customer support and mobile-based service platforms.
- Time-bound service delivery as per ERC standards.
- Reduce Aggregate Technical & Commercial (AT&C) losses significantly.
- Scale up solarization of agricultural distribution Transformers.
- Promote energy-efficient pump sets by adopting DSM measures.
- Continuous training of staff on modern technologies and safety practices.
- Adoption of best practices in utility management.

Rythu DISCOM is committed to delivering reliable, affordable, and sustainable electricity distribution services. Through a combination of modern technology, efficient management practices, and a strong consumer focus, the company aims to transform rural power distribution and support agricultural productivity and economic growth.

23. Data relating to the applicant's future business

- Five year Business Plan for transmission or distribution of electricity for which the application is being made and funding arrangements for meeting its obligations under proposed licence for maintenance, operation, improvement and expansion for future load growth.

ii. Five year annual forecasts of costs, sales, revenues and project financing stating the assumptions underlying the figures provided.

Business plan will be submitted within 3 months of distribution license coming into force as per clause 38.1 of Regulation 04 of 2016 (Distribution License Regulations)

24. It is also to submit that Rythu DISCOM does not undertake supply of electricity to areas or establishments under defence occupation, including aerodromes, fortresses, arsenals, dockyards, camps, or any buildings and places used for defence purposes. Such categories of consumers fall outside the operational jurisdiction of Rythu DISCOM, and therefore, the question of objection or consent for supply in these areas does not arise. Further, the letter was addressed to Cantonment Board for issue of NOC and same is enclosed here with.

25. It is, therefore prayed that the Hon'ble Commission may please be accord approval to the applicant's proposal for grant of Licence to "Telangana Rythu Power Distribution Company Limited(TGRPDCL)" in accordance with the provisions of the Electricity Act, 2003 and as per Distribution Licence Regulation no.4 of 2016.

THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013

(Act No. 18 of 2013)

COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

OF

TELANGANA RYTHU POWER DISTRIBUTION COMPANY LIMITED

1. The name of the Company is "TELANGANA RYTHU POWER DISTRIBUTION COMPANY LIMITED".
2. The Registered Office of the Company will be situated in the state of Telangana.
3. (a) The objects to be pursued by the company on its incorporation are:
 - I. To establish and operate a distribution company in the State of Telangana for undertaking the business of distribution and retail supply of electrical energy, including purchasing, procuring, importing, exporting, wheeling, trading, selling and supplying electrical energy, and to operate and manage the electricity distribution system including billing, collection and related functions for designated consumer categories including Agriculture, Lift Irrigation Schemes (LIS), Composite Protected Water Supply Schemes (CPWS) including Mission Bhagiratha, Hyderabad Metropolitan Water Supply and Sewerage Board (HMWSSB), Municipal water supply connections having separate Distribution Transformer Centres (LT VI-B), including such subsidized or Government supported consumer categories as may be notified by the Government of Telangana or the appropriate regulatory authority from time to time and to carry on the business of electricity distribution, supply, wheeling and related activities in accordance with the provisions of the Electricity Act, 2003 and the rules, regulations, orders and directions issued by the Telangana State Electricity Regulatory Commission (TGERC) or any other competent authority, including any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force.

- II. To extend and provide electricity supply and service connections to the aforesaid consumer categories including agricultural consumers, lift irrigation schemes, protected water supply schemes including Mission Bhagiratha, Hyderabad Metropolitan Water Supply and Sewerage Board (HMWSSB) and municipal water supply systems, and to undertake electrification works, infrastructure development, strengthening and expansion of the electricity distribution network required for such supply.
- III. To purchase, procure, receive and allocate electrical energy from generating companies, transmission utilities, power trading companies or other authorised entities in accordance with power purchase agreements or such other arrangements approved by the Government of Telangana or the competent regulatory authority, and to distribute and supply such electrical energy to the consumers served by the Company.
- IV. To plan, develop, operate, maintain and manage the electricity distribution system and related infrastructure including distribution transformers (DTRs), low tension lines, service lines, substations, metering systems and other associated electrical facilities, and to undertake energy accounting, monitoring and measurement through distribution transformer metering and consumer metering for lift irrigation schemes, CPWS/Mission Bhagiratha, HMWSSB and other designated consumers.
- V. To receive, acquire, take over, operate and manage such electricity distribution undertakings, assets, infrastructure, systems, rights, obligations, liabilities, employees and personnel as may be transferred, assigned, vested or otherwise made available to the Company by the Government of Telangana or any competent authority, whether by way of restructuring, reorganisation, transfer scheme, demerger, business transfer, slump sale, asset transfer, statutory vesting or any other arrangement relating to the power distribution sector in the State, and to carry on and continue the operations of such undertakings and assets, and to undertake all activities and functions that may be permitted to a distribution licensee or electricity utility under applicable laws governing the electricity sector in India, including compliance with regulatory requirements and ensuring reliable, efficient and quality supply of electricity to its consumers, and to execute such agreements, arrangements or instruments as may be necessary for giving effect to such restructuring, transfer or vesting and to undertake all such activities as are incidental, ancillary or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

3. (b)Matters which are necessary for furtherance of the objects specified in clause3(a) are:

- i. To establish and maintain branches, agencies or appoint representative for anyone or more objects of the Company.
- ii. To obtain, maintain and comply with licences, permissions and directions issued by the electricity regulatory commission or other competent authorities.
- iii. To establish and operate smart metering systems, energy management systems and data platforms for efficient electricity distribution.

FORM NO. INC-34
INCORPORATED
UNDER THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013
COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES
ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION
OF
TELANGANA RYTHU POWER DISTRIBUTION COMPANY LIMITED

Interpretation

(1) PRELIMINARY

1.1 The regulations contained in Table 'F' in the Schedule I to the Act shall apply only to the extent of the subject matter of those regulations, not being covered under these Articles of Association.

(2) In these regulations -

(a) "the Act" means the Companies Act, 2013,

(b) "the seal" means the common seal of the company.

(3) Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these regulations shall bear the same meaning as in the Act or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these regulations become binding on the company.

Share capital and variation of rights

1. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the shares in the capital of the company shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue, allot or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them to such persons, in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par and at such time as they may from time to time think fit.
2. (i) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled to receive within two months after incorporation, in case of subscribers to the memorandum or after allotment or within one month after the application for the registration of transfer or transmission or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall be provided, -
 - (a) One certificate for all his shares without payment of any charges; or

(b) Several certificates, each for one or more of his shares, upon payment of twenty rupees for each certificate after the first.

(ii) Every certificate shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon.

(iii) In respect of any share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

3. (i) If any share certificate be worn out, defaced, mutilated or torn or if there be no further space on the back for endorsement of transfer, then upon production and surrender thereof to the company, a new certificate may be issued in lieu thereof, and if any certificate is lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the company and on execution of such indemnity as the company deem adequate, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given. Every certificate under this Article shall be issued on payment of twenty rupees for each certificate.

(ii) The provisions of Articles (2) and (3) shall mutatis mutandis apply to debentures of the company.

4. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these regulations or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

5. (i) The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by sub-section (6) of section 40, provided that the rate per cent. or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by that section and rules made thereunder.

(ii) The rate or amount of the commission shall not exceed the rate or amount prescribed in rules made under sub-section (6) of section 40.

(iii) The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in the one way and partly in the other.

6. (i) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of section 48, and whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

(ii) To every such separate meeting, the provisions of these regulations relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be at least two persons holding at least one-third of the issued shares of the class in question.

7. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.
8. Subject to the provisions of section 55, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the company before the issue of the shares may, by special resolution, determine.

Lien

9. (i) The company shall have a first and paramount lien –
 - (a) on every share (not being a fully paid share), for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and
 - (b) on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person, for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company: Provided that the Board of directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause.
- (ii) The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable and bonuses declared from time to time in respect of such shares.
10. The company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the company has a lien:
Provided that no sale shall be made –
 - (a) unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; or
 - (b) until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.
11. (i) To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
- (ii) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.

(iii) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

12. (i) The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.
(ii) The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

Calls on shares

13. (i) The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or byway of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times:
Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.
(ii) Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.
(iii) A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.
14. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.
15. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
16. (i) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at ten per cent. per annum or at such lower rate, if any, as the Board may determine.
(ii) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.
17. (i) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these regulations, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.

(ii) In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

18. The Board –

(a) may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, allot any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and

(b) upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the company in general meeting shall otherwise direct, twelve percent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance.

Transfer of shares

19. (i) The instrument of transfer of any share in the company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee.

(ii) The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

20. The Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by section 58 decline to register –

(a) the transfer of a share, not being a fully paid share, to a person of whom they do not approve; or

(b) any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien.

21. The Board may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless –

(a) the instrument of transfer is in the form as prescribed in rules made under subsection (1) of section 56;

(b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and

(c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.

22. On giving not less than seven days' previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine:

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.

Transmission of shares

23. (i) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his nominee or nominees or legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares.
(ii) Nothing in clause (i) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
24. (i) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either—
(a) to be registered himself as holder of the share; or
(b) to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.
(ii) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.
25. (i) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
(ii) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
(iii) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.
26. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company:

Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Forfeiture of shares

27. If a member fails to pay any call, or instalment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
28. The notice aforesaid shall—
- (a) name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and
 - (b) state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.
29. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
30. (i) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.
(ii) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.
31. (i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares.
(ii) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.
- 32.
- (i) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of;
 - (ii) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share; and
 - (iii) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
33. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of on payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Alteration of capital

34. The company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.
35. Subject to the provisions of section 61, the company may, by ordinary resolution, —
- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
 - (b) Convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination;
 - (c) Sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum;
 - (d) Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
36. Where shares are converted into stock, —
- (a) the holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit:
Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
 - (b) the holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
 - (c) such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.
37. The company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised and consent required by law, —
- (a) its share capital;
 - (b) any capital redemption reserve account; or
 - (c) any share premium account.

Capitalisation of profits

38. (i) The company in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve—
- (a) that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, or otherwise available for distribution; and
 - (b) that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in clause (ii) amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.
- (ii) The sum aforesaid shall not be paid in cash but shall be applied, subject to the provision contained in clause (iii), either in or towards—
- (A) paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively;
 - (B) paying up in full, unissued shares of the company to be allotted and distributed, recredited as fully paid-up, to and amongst such members in the proportions aforesaid;
 - (C) Partly in the way specified in sub-clause (A) and partly in that specified in sub-clause (B).
 - (D) A securities premium account and a capital redemption reserve account may, for the purposes of this regulation, be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares;
 - (E) The Board shall give effect to the resolution passed by the company in pursuance of this regulation.
39. (i) Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall—
- (a) Make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares if any; and
 - (b) Generally, do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.
- (ii) The Board shall have power—
- (a) To make such provisions, by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit, for the case of shares becoming distributable in Fractions; and
 - (b) to authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the members entitled there to, into an agreement with the company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or as the case may require, for the payment by the company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amount or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares;

- (iii) Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on such members.

Buy-back of shares

40. Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles but subject to the provisions of sections 68 to 70 and any other applicable provision of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.

General meetings

41. All general meetings other than annual general meeting shall be called extraordinary general meeting.
42. (i) The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an extraordinary general meeting.
(ii) If at any time directors capable of acting who are sufficient in number to form a quorum are not within India, any director or any two members of the company may call an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which such a meeting may be called by the Board.

Proceedings at general meetings

43. (i) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
(ii) Save as otherwise provided herein, the quorum for the general meetings shall be as provided in section 103.
44. The chairperson, if any, of the Board shall preside as Chairperson at every general meeting of the company.
45. If there is no such Chairperson, or if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as chairperson of the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.
46. If at any meeting no director is willing to act as Chairperson or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.

Adjournment of meeting

47. (i) The Chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so, directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time-to-time and from place to place.
- (ii) No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (iii) When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.
- (iv) Save as aforesaid, and as provided in section 103 of the Act, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Voting rights

48. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, —
- (a) On a show of hands, every member present in person shall have one vote;
- And
- (b) On a poll, the voting rights of members shall be in proportion to his share in the paid-up equity share capital of the company.
49. A member may exercise his vote at a meeting by electronic means in accordance with section 108 and shall vote only once.
50. (i) In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.
- (ii) For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.
51. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian, and any such committee or guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy.
52. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.
53. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the company have been paid.

54. (i) No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes.
(ii) Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairperson of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Proxy

55. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power-of-attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarised copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
56. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the form as prescribed in the rules made under section 105.
57. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given:

Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the company at its office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

Board of Directors

58. (i) The Board of Directors of the Company shall consist of such number of Directors as may be determined by the Government of Telangana from time to time, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The Government of Telangana shall have the power to appoint, remove or replace Directors of the Company.
- (ii) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the following persons shall act as the first Directors of the Company until the Directors are duly appointed or nominated in accordance with the provisions of these Articles or directions issued by the Government of Telangana:

(iii). Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, The Government of Telangana shall have the right to nominate, appoint, remove or replace any Director of the Company from time to time and Subject to the provisions of the Act, so long as the entire issued share capital of the Company is beneficially owned by Government of Telangana. Government of Telangana shall have the right to nominate and appoint all the Directors and to fill any vacancy which may arise as a result of any Director ceasing to hold office for any reason whatsoever and Government of Telangana shall have the right to nominate and appoint one or more of the Directors to the office of Chairman and /or Managing Director for such term and on such remuneration and/or allowances as it may think fit.

(iv). Independent Directors, if appointed, shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 149 of the Companies Act, 2013 and the applicable rules.

(v). Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the Company shall comply with such directions as may be issued by the Government of Telangana from time to time in matters of policy relating to the functioning of the Company and the Board shall give effect to such directions.

(vi). The Company shall comply with all applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, the Electricity Act, 2003 and all other applicable laws, rules, regulations, directions or orders issued by the Government of Telangana, the Telangana State Electricity Regulatory Commission (TGERC) or any other competent regulatory or statutory authority from time to time.

59. (i) The remuneration of the directors shall, in so far as it consists of a monthly payment, be deemed to accrue from day-to-day.

(ii) In addition to the remuneration payable to them in pursuance of the Act, the directors may be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them—

(a) in attending and returning from meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof or general meetings of the company; or

(b) in connection with the business of the company.

60. The Board may pay all expenses incurred in getting up and registering the company.

61. The company may exercise the powers conferred on it by section 88 with regard to the keeping of a foreign register; and the Board may (subject to the provisions of that section) make and vary such regulations as it may think fit respecting the keeping of any such register.

62. (i) All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, hundis, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for monies paid to the company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by such person and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine.

(ii) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and such approvals as may be required from the Government of Telangana from time to time, the Board of Directors may from time to time borrow or raise or secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Board may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, debenture-stock or other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company.

63. Every director present at any meeting of the Board or of a committee thereof shall sign his name in a book to be kept for that purpose.

64. (i) Subject to the provisions of section 149, the Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint a person as an additional director, provided the number of the directors and additional directors together shall not at any time exceed the maximum strength fixed for the Board by the articles.

(ii) Such person shall hold office only up to the date of the next annual general meeting of the company but shall be eligible for appointment by the company as a director at that meeting subject to the provisions of the Act.

Proceedings of the Board

65. (i) The Board of Directors may meet for the conduct of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings, as it thinks fit. The Directors may participate in meetings of the Board or committees thereof through video conferencing or other audio-visual means in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the applicable rules.

(ii) A director may, and the manager or secretary on the requisition of a director shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the Board.

66. (i) Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes.

(ii) All decisions or actions of the Board shall be taken by a simple majority of the Directors present and voting.

(iii) In case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the Board, if any, shall have a second or casting vote.

67. The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board; but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum fixed by the Act for a meeting of the Board, the continuing directors or director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to that fixed for the quorum, or of summoning a general meeting of the company, but for no other purpose.
68. (i) The Board may elect a Chairperson of its meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office.
(ii) If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present may choose one of their numbers to be Chairperson of the meeting.
69. (i) The Board may, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, constitute such committees of the Board as it may consider necessary for the efficient management of the affairs of the Company.
(ii) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Board may constitute the following committees:
a) Audit Committee, which shall function in accordance with the provisions of Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 and such terms of reference as may be approved by the Board.
b) Nomination and Remuneration Committee, which shall function in accordance with the provisions of Section 178 of the Companies Act, 2013 and such terms of reference as may be approved by the Board.
c) Technical Committee, which shall assist the Board in matters relating to technical operations, planning, maintenance and development of the electricity distribution system of the Company.
(iii) The composition, powers and functions of the committees shall be determined by the Board from time to time.
(iv) Any committee so constituted shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to such regulations as may be imposed on it by the Board.
70. (i) A committee may elect a Chairperson of its meetings.
(ii) If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one among themselves to act as Chairperson of the meeting.

- 71.(i) A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks fit.
(ii) Questions arising at any meeting of a committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting.
(iii) In case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
72. Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, a resolution in writing, signed by all the members of the Board or of a committee thereof, for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or committee, shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or committee, duly convened and held.

Chief Executive Officer, Manager, Company Secretary or Chief Financial Officer

73. Subject to the provisions of the Act, —

- (i) A chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer may be appointed by the Board for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as it may think fit; and any chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer so appointed may be removed by means of a resolution of the Board;
- (ii) A director may be appointed as chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer.
74. A provision of the Act or these regulations requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a director and chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting Botha director and as, or in place of, chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer.

The Seal

75. The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal. The seal of the company shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Board or of a committee of the Board authorised by it in that behalf and except in the presence of at least two directors and of the secretary or such other person as the Board may appoint for the purpose and those two directors and the secretary or other person aforesaid shall sign every instrument to which the seal of the company is so affixed in their presence.

Dividends and Reserve

76. The Company in general meeting may declare dividends subject to the provisions of Section 123 of the Companies Act, 2013 and directions of the Government of Telangana wherever applicable, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

77. Subject to the provisions of section 123, the Board may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to it to be justified by the profits of the company.
78. (i) The Board may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks fit as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the company may be properly applied, including provision for meeting contingencies or for equalising dividends; and pending such application, may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company) as the Board may, from time to time, thinks fit.
(ii) The Board may also carry forward any profits which it may consider necessary not to divide, without setting them aside as a reserve.
79. (i) Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but if and so long as nothing is paid upon any of the shares in the company, dividends may be declared and paid according to the amounts of the shares.
(ii) No amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this regulation as paid on the share.
(iii) All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
80. The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the company.
81. (i) Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the register of members, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct.
(ii) Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.
82. Any one of two or more joint holders of a share may give effective receipts for any dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of such share.

83. Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to the persons entitled to share therein in the manner mentioned in the Act.

84. No dividend shall bear interest against the company.

Accounts

85. (i) The Board shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations, the accounts and books of the company, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of members not being directors.

(ii) No member (not being a director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the company except as conferred by law or authorised by the Board or by the company in general meeting.

(iii) The accounts of the Company shall be audited in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Comptroller and Auditor General of India shall have the powers to appoint the statutory auditors and conduct supplementary audit in accordance with the provisions of Section 139 and Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 and other applicable provisions.

Winding up

86. Subject to the provisions of Chapter XX of the Act and other applicable laws and rules made there under —

(i) If the company shall be wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by the Act, divide amongst the members, in specie or kind, the whole or any part of the assets of the company, whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not.

(ii) For the purpose aforesaid, the liquidator may set such value as he deems fair upon any property to be divided as aforesaid and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members.

(iii) The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories if he considers necessary, but so that no member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities whereon there is any liability.

Indemnity

87. Every officer of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings.

Sir/Madam,

Sub : Allotment of Tax Deduction Account Number (TAN) as per Income Tax Act, 1961

Kindly refer to your application (Form 49B) dated Mar 18, 2026 for the allotment of Tax Deduction Account Number.

In this connection, the following TAN has been issued to you/your organisation:

HYDT17767B

Please quote the same in all TDS challans, TDS Certificates, TDS returns, Tax Collection at Source (TCS) returns as well as other documents pertaining to such transactions.

Quoting of TAN on all TDS returns and challans for payment of TDS is necessary to ensure credit of TDS paid by you and faster processing of TDS returns.

The above TAN should also be used as Tax Collections at Source Account Number under section 206CA.

Kindly note that it is mandatory to quote TAN while furnishing TDS returns, including e-TDS returns. e-TDS returns will not be accepted if TAN is not quoted.

This supersedes all the Tax Deduction / Collection Account Number, allotted to you earlier.
